Wake Forest University Recruiting Opportunities
2016-2017

We know the most important thing to you is recruiting the best talent.
At Wake Forest University students don’t just look for a job.
They seek to make an immediate and meaningful impact for the organizations they serve.

Likewise, our Employer Relations staff doesn’t just see you as a potential employer of Wake Forest talent.
We see an opportunity to help our students “do good,” for themselves, for you, and for the world.

Please see below for our upcoming recruiting opportunities.

Career Fairs (Contact Dana Hutchens, 336.758.5246, hutchens@wfu.edu)
Each year Wake Forest holds two career fairs where all students are invited to attend.
  • Fall Career Fair: September 14, 2016 (registration is now open)
  • Spring Career Fair: January 18, 2017

On-Campus Recruiting Opportunities (Contact Lisa Simmons, 336.758.4485, simmonll@wfu.edu)
  • Information Sessions (on-campus and virtual)
  • On-Campus Interviews
  • Virtual Recruiting

Networking Events (Contact Ashley Graham Phipps, 336.758.4389, phippsac@wfu.edu)
Students have the opportunity to network with employers and alumni both on campus and in other cities.
  • Nonprofit Networking Night (On-Campus): November 10, 2016
  • STEM SLAM (On-Campus): February 8, 2017
  • CREATIVITY SLAM (On-Campus): February 15, 2017

Go to Market Opportunities - Career Treks (Contact Lori Sykes, 336.758.3850, sykeslh@wfu.edu)
Students have an opportunity to visit organizations in major U.S. cities to gain industry knowledge and learn about potential jobs and internships.
  • NYC Career Trek (Fashion): October 21, 2016
  • DC Career Trek (Government & Politics, Consulting, Art): October 21, 2016
  • San Francisco Career Trek (Technology): January 3-5, 2017
  • NYC Career Trek (Media & Communication, Public Relations, Sports Marketing): March 8-10, 2017

For more information visit: employers.opcd.wfu.edu